Dear NT Grads and Former Staff

We hope you enjoy the accompanying alumni newsletter and will consider responding to all inserts regarding our ongoing annual fundraising, ordering the 100th Anniversary Book, "Hail North Toronto: Celebrating a Century" and/or ordering a school portrait print or notecards of "NTCI 1955" by Barry Bowerman (NT '67). As noted last year, most copies of the newsletter are being distributed by email this year to reduce mailing costs and environmental impact. They are being sent by Canada Post only to those who have requested that form of delivery.

Keeping in Touch... and Moving to Email

For those with email, please visit our website, www.ntcifoundation.ca, to update your contact information and/or respond online to these opportunities. For those responding by Canada Post, please fill out and return the tear-off slip at the bottom of this letter and the other order forms as appropriate. Those who received this newsletter by Canada Post will also have received a self-addressed envelope for this purpose. We are particularly eager to receive your current email address (if you haven't sent it to us) so you can receive periodic updates on NTCI Foundation activities and will receive the annual newsletter by email in future years.

Annual Fundraising for the Foundation

As you know, the Foundation funds scholarships, grants and alumni communications on an ongoing basis. We continue to rely on your annual donations for these purposes, as funds from the 2008-2010 Red & Grey Spirit Campaign have been fully used for the Heritage Program, which highlights NT's first 100 years of history in the new building. Your annual donation can be made online at our website or by Canada Post using the tear-off slip, as noted above. You will, of course, receive a receipt for each donation. Thank you for your support of the Foundation and, through it, of NTCI students now and in the future.

Sincerely,

Neal Irwin ('50)
Chair, Foundation Advisory Board

A real field at last!

For the first time since the music wing was built, truncating the field, NT has a regulation size football field and the students and staff no longer have to endure the teasing from those attending the “home away from home” down the street at Northern. For those of you receiving the paper copy, the end-zones are bright NT red.

After three long years of planning, the NTCI 100th Anniversary festivities have come and gone, and what a celebration it was! After a lengthy publicity campaign through newsletters, mass emails and social media, the weekend kicked off with Athletic Night at Spirale on May 10th. A spirited gathering of almost 300 former athletes and coaches spent the evening enjoying one another's company and reliving both the joys of victory and the agonies of defeat.

May 11th saw 72 golfers tackle the North Course of Angus Glen — it may be the home of the 2007 Canadian Open but was no match for our contingent of Norsemen! A beautiful spring day, great food and a beer sponsor made for a wonderful day out on the links.

Later that day, over 1200 people attended at Roy Thomson Hall for the one-time performance of Memories Forever — a Maytime Melodies-style concert featuring hundreds of alumni musicians and chorus members, including numerous guest conductors. The evening featured all the greatest hits of an NT concert, right down to closing the place down with the school song, as well as a specially-commissioned medley. These are the moments to remember.

May 12th saw an early start as past and present staff gathered for breakfast before the Opening Ceremonies and Open House. While there were 1200 people registered to attend, it felt like thousands of people were touring the new building, enjoying the decade rooms and demonstrations arranged by our current crop of students, viewing the art exhibition and browsing through the memorabilia available for sale. In particular, copies of our book "Celebrating a Century" were flying off the tables!

The weekend came to an end Saturday evening with an event that was a century in the making — the Centennial Gala at the Liberty Grand. This elegant venue was the scene of a dinner-dance for 700 former staff and students — new friendships were formed and old ones rekindled over an evening of delicious food and the lilt of music from our alumni musicians and DJ. Given the astounding support for and participation in the weekend, it is safe to say that the spirit of North Toronto is alive and well!

100th Anniversary Committee

The 100th anniversary events were all amazing successes. There were memories shared, old friends reunited and new friends made. Thanks to all the volunteers who spent untold hours making this all happen.

Here are the people on the overall 100th anniversary committee, most of whom started in this 3 years ago, who oversaw everything (and of course there were dozens more people who were involved at various levels who deserve kudos too).

Board Chair Neal Irwin Retires

After nine years at the helm of the NT Alumni Advisory Board, Neal Irwin is stepping down and we on the Board feel that his extraordinary contribution should not go unheralded. Coincidentally, Neal became Co-chair of the Board at the start of what became the busiest period in this organization's lengthy history.

Two of the most important events in NT history came about within months of each other; the building of the new school and the 100th Anniversary celebrations, both requiring considerable input from the Advisory Board. On top of that, it was decided to bring out electronic versions of both the annual newsletter and the periodic mailings, which necessitated a complete overhaul of the database.

Early on, it was decided that we should raise around $300,000 to ensure creation of appropriate memorabilia in the new school as well as preservation of the historical items the Advisory Board already had responsibility for. This includes all of the display cases, the various paintings in the library and elsewhere, the lists of alumni who fought in the wars and the grads who received scholarships. Committees were struck to oversee the building of the Memorial Courtyard and the Heritage Room, along with the storage room for memorabilia.

Getting things done with a volunteer board is always a challenge because there is such a mix of backgrounds and level of experience. Neal, whose background is in engineering, was terrific in terms of keeping track of everything the board was responsible for. He gave gentle nudges to make sure tasks were completed, and managed to gain the respect of everyone who worked with him.

When it came to light that the budget for the new field did not include money for the end-zone decorations of the logo at mid-field, the Board elected to appropriate the required cash and have the spectacular red additions made to the end zones and a new logo installed.

As Chair, Neal had to oversee all of the committees, liaise with the school and Board staff, the architects and builder's representatives, attend all of the various meetings and Alumni functions and make sure everybody stepped up to the plate in a diplomatic a fashion as possible, even with last minute emergencies. For the two dozen or so Board members, this was an enormous amount of work and I'm pleased to report that Neal made it seem, not only possible, but that we could have fun accomplishing it.

Four years on we can look back at great successes, no disasters and an enduring legacy that staff and students can be proud of in the decades to come and we primarily have Neal to thank for this. Amazingly, thanks to the generosity of over 500 donors, our fundraising efforts surpassed the original goal by $20,000.

The Heritage Courtyard is a wonderful space for students to hang out while maintaining a suitable tribute to the old school and those who donated towards the heritage projects.

Thank you from all of us, Neal, and may we continue to enjoy your participation.

Your Skills and Interests — just what we're looking for!

The NTCI Foundation has an Advisory Board of 25 members that meets at the school about six times each year. In addition to providing general guidance at Board meetings, our members bring a variety of skills in helping with many different Foundation-related activities. In the coming year, we will need to replenish our Board with about three new members. We would like to hear from you if can:

- Serve as Foundation Treasurer starting in 2013
- Write copy for the annual newsletter
- Help us maintain our membership database/ mailing list
- Help maintain our Web site, to make it a compelling and up-to-date source of information
- Lend a hand with the School Archives
- Think outside the box in considering what else we might do to serve the school and our alumni

Interested in helping out? Please let us know:

Scholarship Winners

In addition to funding worthwhile projects that cannot be financed from normal school resources, the NTCI foundation also funds several scholarships that are awarded at Commencement to reward academic and extra curricular achievement. Here are the award winners from last fall's Commencement ceremony:

The R.R.H. (Bud) Page Valedictory Prize: Robbie Grant

The Sifton Trophy for Young Men: Zachary Bader-Shamai

The Kerr Trophy for Young Women: Amy Kikuchi

The Hal Brown "Triple A" Award: Henno Einola

The Betty Bealey Laureateship in English Award: Rebecca Jacobs

The Senator Keith Davey Award: Angalee Nadesalingam

Nostalgic Memory of NTCI circa 1955

Captured in portrait by 1967 graduate Barry Bowerman. Original painting is hanging in the new school.

In an effort to preserve the heritage of the majestic architecture and memory of the original building of North Toronto Collegiate Institute, Barry Bowerman (NTCI graduate of 1967) was commissioned to paint a portrait of the school that now hangs in the Heritage Room of the new building. The painting has been used to produce colour prints and notecards as a source of fund-raising for the NTCI Foundation. The image of NTCI portrayed in the painting is as seen from Broadway circa 1955.

Order 10" x 17" colour prints and/or packs of 5 notecards (4-1/4" x 5-1/2", with envelopes), using one of three options for payment:

- Pick up at NTCI main office after October 5, 2012; pay cash at NTCI or pre-pay as follows:
