Commencement Award winners

(*The following commencement awards are sponsored by the NTCI Foundation.)

R.R.H.PAGE VALEDICTORY PRIZE

R.R.H. (Bud) Page was a teacher of Latin and Greek at North Toronto from 1928 to 1950. Later, he became the school's fourth Principal (1959-1970). His philosophy of excellence for North Toronto helped the school to weather the storm of the turbulent 60s.

THE KERR TROPHY FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Hugh Leonard Kerr was served as school trustee on the Toronto Board of Education from 1922 to 1933 and, and in 1926, he was Chairman of the Board. In 1928 he established the Kerr Trophy to honour our outstanding graduates.

THE SIFTON TROPHY FOR YOUNG MEN

Clifford Sifton was a student at North Toronto (1933-1938). Mrs. Harold Sifton presented the Sifton Trophy to the school in 1939, not only to acknowledge the school's contribution to the education of her son, but to commemorate the contributions of the Sifton family to the public life of our country.

HAL BROWN "TRIPLE A" AWARD

Hal Brown came to North Toronto in 1946. Although he retired from teaching of history in 1983, he contributed as an outstanding coach of track and field events. The "Triple A" Award honours his positive "Attitude" and commitment to Academic and Athletic excellence.

BETTY BEALEY LAUREATESHIP IN ENGLISH

Betty Bealey graduated from North Toronto in 1931. She won a number of university scholarships as well as the Kerr Trophy. As a teacher of English from 1941-1972, she won the admiration and love of thousands of young people.

SENATOR KEITH DAVEY AWARD

Senator Keith Davey is a graduate of North Toronto. To honour the Senator's commitment to Canadian history, politics and culture, the winner of the Senator Keith Davey Award, a Grade 10 student, represents the school at the Encounters with Canada conference.
